Payment Schedule

100% FULL PAYMENT

Due upon written confirmation and acceptance of the proposal.

As this booking is being confirmed within 30 days of departure, full payment is required at confirmation.

Reservations and services remain subject to availability until payment is received and supplier confirmations are secured.

All bank transfer charges and correspondent bank fees are the responsibility of the sender.

Cancellation Terms

All cancellations must be submitted to Epoch Journeys in writing.

Cancellation charges will be determined according to the cancellation conditions of the hotels, transportation companies, cruise lines, airlines, ferries, restaurants, local service providers, and other suppliers confirmed for the program.

Any non-refundable deposits, prepayments, cancellation charges, or contractual commitments already incurred by Epoch Journeys on behalf of the group will apply.

Certain services may become non-refundable immediately upon confirmation, ticketing, cabin allocation, room commitment, passenger-name submission, rooming-list submission, or another supplier-defined milestone.

Because supplier conditions vary by destination, travel date, service, and group, the tour-specific cancellation conditions applicable to the confirmed program will be communicated with the Tour Proposal / Confirmation and related correspondence.

The earliest applicable supplier deadline or restriction may determine when part of the tour becomes non-refundable.

Cancellations received close to departure may result in charges up to 100% of the total tour cost, depending on supplier commitments already made.

No refund is provided for no-shows or voluntarily unused services after travel has commenced unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

Comprehensive travel insurance, including trip cancellation and interruption coverage, is strongly recommended for all travelers.

Important Conditions & Notes

IMPORTANT CONDITIONS & NOTES

This quotation is confidential and is intended solely for the travel agency, group organizer, parish, or other recipient named in the proposal.

All rates are based on the number of paying pilgrims, complimentary travelers, rooming arrangements, travel dates, and services stated in this quotation. Any material change in group size, rooming configuration, travel dates, itinerary, or requested services may require the rates to be recalculated.

All hotels, transportation, guides, restaurants, visits, Mass arrangements, and other services are subject to availability at the time of confirmation. No service is considered reserved until confirmed by Epoch Journeys and any required deposit or payment has been received.

Hotels named in the proposal are subject to final confirmation. Where necessary, Epoch Journeys may substitute a hotel with another property of similar category and standard in the same or a reasonably comparable location.

Standard hotel rooms are quoted unless another room category is specifically stated. Special requests, including connecting rooms, adjoining rooms, accessibility requirements, walk-in showers, early check-in, and late check-out, are subject to availability and may involve additional charges.

The order of sightseeing, visits, excursions, Masses, meals, transportation, or other services may be adjusted where required for operational reasons, local conditions, opening hours, religious services, traffic, weather, supplier requirements, or other circumstances, without materially reducing the overall content or quality of the program.

Daily Mass arrangements and church visits are subject to confirmation by the relevant church, shrine, diocese, religious community, or local authority. Mass times and locations may therefore be changed when necessary.

Rates include only the services expressly listed under "Rates Include". Any service not specifically listed as included should be considered excluded unless otherwise confirmed in writing.

Supplier payment and cancellation conditions may vary between hotels, transportation providers, cruise companies, airlines, ferries, restaurants, guides, venues, and other service providers. The applicable tour-specific payment and cancellation conditions will be based on the suppliers confirmed for the program and will be communicated in the Tour Proposal / Confirmation and related correspondence.

Certain supplier deposits, tickets, cabins, rooms, transportation services, or other arrangements may become non-refundable immediately upon confirmation, ticketing, allocation, or another supplier-defined milestone.

Passenger names, passport information, rooming lists, dietary information, accessibility requirements, and other operational details must be supplied by the deadlines communicated by Epoch Journeys. Late or incomplete information may result in additional costs, loss of reservations, or changes to confirmed services.

Prices are based on taxes, VAT, accommodation taxes, climate taxes, entrance fees, fuel costs, transportation charges, exchange rates, government levies, and supplier rates known at the time the quotation is issued. New or increased taxes, government fees, environmental charges, fuel surcharges, or mandatory supplier charges introduced after quotation may be added where applicable.

Airline, ferry, rail, cruise, and other transportation schedules are subject to change by the operating carrier. Epoch Journeys will make reasonable efforts to adjust the program where such changes occur.

The client and travelers are responsible for ensuring that passports, visas, entry requirements, health documents, and other travel documentation are valid and comply with the requirements of each destination.

Comprehensive travel insurance, including medical, trip cancellation, interruption, delay, and baggage coverage, is strongly recommended for all travelers.

Epoch Journeys shall not be responsible for delays, cancellations, additional expenses, missed services, or itinerary changes caused by circumstances outside its reasonable control, including but not limited to weather, strikes, transportation disruption, natural events, governmental action, border restrictions, civil disturbance, or other force majeure events.

Any expenses arising from circumstances beyond the control of Epoch Journeys that are not included in the confirmed program will be the responsibility of the traveler, group, or contracting client.

This quotation, its pricing, supplier information, and commercial terms are confidential and may not be reproduced, distributed, or disclosed to third parties without prior written consent from Epoch Journeys.
