Payment Schedule

100% FULL PAYMENT

Due upon written confirmation and acceptance of the proposal.

As this booking is being confirmed within 30 days of departure, full payment is required at confirmation.

Reservations and services remain subject to availability until payment is received and supplier confirmations are secured.

All bank transfer charges and correspondent bank fees are the responsibility of the sender.

Cancellation Terms

All cancellations must be submitted to Epoch Journeys in writing.

Cancellation charges will be determined according to the cancellation conditions of the hotels, transportation companies, cruise lines, airlines, ferries, restaurants, local service providers, and other suppliers confirmed for the program.

Any non-refundable deposits, prepayments, cancellation charges, or contractual commitments already incurred by Epoch Journeys on behalf of the group will apply.

Certain services may become non-refundable immediately upon confirmation, ticketing, cabin allocation, room commitment, passenger-name submission, rooming-list submission, or another supplier-defined milestone.

Because supplier conditions vary by destination, travel date, service, and group, the tour-specific cancellation conditions applicable to the confirmed program will be communicated with the Tour Proposal / Confirmation and related correspondence.

The earliest applicable supplier deadline or restriction may determine when part of the tour becomes non-refundable.

Cancellations received close to departure may result in charges up to 100% of the total tour cost, depending on supplier commitments already made.

No refund is provided for no-shows or voluntarily unused services after travel has commenced unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

Comprehensive travel insurance, including trip cancellation and interruption coverage, is strongly recommended for all travelers.

Important Conditions & Notes

IMPORTANT CONDITIONS & NOTES

This quotation is confidential and intended solely for the travel agency, parish, organization, group leader, or contracting party named in the proposal.

All rates are calculated according to the stated number of paying pilgrims and complimentary travelers, travel dates, itinerary, rooming configuration, transportation requirements, and supplier rates available when the quotation is prepared.

Any reduction or increase in the number of paying participants, change in complimentary places, room occupancy, itinerary, travel dates, transportation requirements, or included services may require a complete recalculation of the quotation.

No hotel room, vehicle, guide, restaurant, cruise cabin, airline seat, ferry reservation, church service, Mass, venue, or other travel service is considered confirmed until accepted by the relevant supplier and any required deposit or guarantee has been received.

Hotels and other suppliers listed in the proposal are based on current availability and may be substituted where necessary with alternatives of similar category and standard.

Special room requests and accessibility requirements are always subject to supplier confirmation and cannot be guaranteed unless specifically confirmed in writing.

The sequence of the itinerary may be modified in response to opening hours, religious celebrations, liturgical schedules, transportation changes, traffic, weather, local events, security considerations, or supplier requirements.

Masses, church visits, shrine visits, and meetings with religious communities are subject to approval and scheduling by the relevant church, shrine, diocese, clergy, religious community, or local authority.

Supplier policies are not uniform. Hotels, cruise lines, airlines, transportation companies, ferries, restaurants, guides, and other suppliers may each have different deposit, release, reduction, cancellation, name-change, ticketing, and final-payment conditions.

Accordingly, the earliest applicable supplier deadline or restriction may determine when part of the tour becomes non-refundable. Tour-specific payment and cancellation conditions will be communicated in the Tour Proposal / Confirmation and may be updated when additional services are confirmed.

Certain services may become non-refundable immediately upon confirmation, ticketing, cabin allocation, room commitment, passenger-name submission, rooming-list submission, or another supplier-defined event.

The contracting client is responsible for providing passenger names, passport details, rooming lists, dietary requirements, accessibility information, flight details, and other operational information accurately and by the deadlines communicated by Epoch Journeys.

Failure to meet operational deadlines may result in loss of space, supplier penalties, additional charges, inability to provide requested services, or cancellation of affected arrangements.

Rates are based on currently applicable supplier tariffs, foreign exchange rates, transportation costs, entrance fees, VAT, accommodation taxes, climate taxes, local government charges, and other mandatory fees.

Any new or increased tax, environmental charge, visitor fee, fuel surcharge, government levy, or mandatory supplier charge introduced after the quotation date may be added to the final tour cost.

Airline, cruise, ferry, rail, and other transport schedules and conditions are controlled by the relevant operator and may change without notice. Epoch Journeys will make reasonable efforts to reorganize affected arrangements where necessary.

Travelers are responsible for valid passports, visas, entry permits, vaccinations or health documentation where required, and compliance with all immigration and destination regulations.

Comprehensive travel insurance is strongly recommended, including trip cancellation, interruption, medical treatment, emergency assistance, travel delay, baggage, and supplier-default coverage where available.

Epoch Journeys shall not be liable for delays, cancellations, losses, additional expenses, missed services, or itinerary modifications resulting from events outside its reasonable control, including but not limited to strikes, adverse weather, natural disasters, transportation disruption, governmental action, border restrictions, political events, public-health measures, or other force majeure circumstances.

Unused or voluntarily declined services are non-refundable unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

This quotation and all related pricing, commercial terms, supplier information, and operational arrangements are proprietary and confidential and may not be reproduced, disclosed, or distributed without the prior written consent of Epoch Journeys.
